Re: Hardy Telecommunications, Inc.
Notification of Compliance
CC Docket No. 92-237

Dear Ms. Salas:

On behalf of Hardy Telecommunications, Inc. ("Hardy"), we provide this notification that, effective June 13, 1998, Hardy has implemented four digit Feature Group D Carrier Identification Code ("CIC") functionality. See attached Declaration of Dwight Welch. This matter was the subject of Hardy's Petition for Waiver of the FCC's CIC Code requirements. Hardy's Petition was granted by the Commission's Common Carrier Bureau ("Bureau") on December 3, 1997, and an extension of waiver until June 30, 1998 was granted by the Bureau on March 30, 1998. See Petitions for Waiver of the Four-Digit Carrier Identification Code (CIC) Implementation Schedule, Order, NSD File Nos. 97-53; 97-56; 97-46; 97-51; 97-54; 97-55; 97-47; 97-48; 97-49; 97-50, DA 97-2528 (rel. Dec. 3, 1997). See also Hardy Telecommunications, Inc. Request for Extension of Waiver of the Four-Digit Carrier Identification Code (CIC) Implementation Schedule, Order, NSD File No. 98-18, DA 998-602 (rel. Mar. 30, 1998). Moreover, on or before June 30, 1998, Hardy also will offer a standard intercept message explaining that a dialing pattern change has occurred and instructing the caller to contact its interexchange carrier for further information, in compliance with the Commission's requirements set forth in the Order on Reconsideration, Order on Application for Review, and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, CC Docket 92-237, FCC 97-386 (rel. Oct. 22, 1997).

Please direct any questions to the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Nyland
